FLEETWOOD PARK.

The Trotters in Training for the Coming Season.

Over Seventy Horses on the Grounds-Brilliant Prospects for the Inanguration Meeting of 1872.

Fleetwood Park has commenced its third season with fine prospects of success. Under the management of the new Superintendent, Mr. William Van Cott, many changes have been made in the track and its surroundings, and the members and patrons of the association express themselves well pleased. A large number of new names have been enrolled recently, and sheds are in process of erection for the use of others who are expected to join the association during the coming season. The road leading up the hill from the bridge which spans the creek, between the track and Central avenue, has been put in fine order, and many other matters arranged for the comfort of the public. The track is in capital condition, and the club house, under new management, renovated thoroughly for the opening meeting of the year, which commences on the 21st inst., and continuing four days, during which time $11,600 in purses will be given for the different classes of horses entered to contend for them. The fact that Mr. Bonner, thus early, has astonished the public by the wonderful performances of his the public by the wondermi performances of his horses Startle, Bruno, Pocahontas and Joe Elliott on Fleetwood track, showing what horsefiesh is capable of, even without preparation, has given an additional interest to equine matters at this time. Below will be found a list of the several training stables and the horses which belong to them now at this track:—

John Rogers has a number in his stables, many of which give promise of future speed.
The turf-loving community of New York should take much interest in Flectwood Park, as it is due to the private enterprise of a few gentlemen that the Association was formed and the track built, at a large expense.

SCENES ON JERSEY HORSE CARS.

transport convicts from the various townships to the County Jail via the horse cars. Oftentimes it happens that the depraved prisoners, male as well as female, indulge in the most foul and insulting language in the presence of the passengers. On Monday afternoon two Hoboken police officers were conveying captives on a horse car from Hoboken, when one of the prisoners, a loose and besotted woman, began to make use of the viest language in a loud, unmistakable tone, to the horror of several ladies who happened to be on board. This obscenity continued at intervals to the end of the journey. What with uncomfortable cars, high five and most opprobrious epithets on the part of outcast convicts, the travelling public fail to enjoy many congenial things on these cars.
